

PuttShack Discussion & Networking Event

Inviting all MWFA & CMC/NASF members and industry personnel!

Join us on February 22nd at Puttshack in Oak Brook, IL, where we'll have the opportunity to receive an economic update from Thomas Walstrum of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

As a senior business economist in the economic research department, Walstrum plays a crucial role in tasks such as contributing to the Beige Book, conducting the Chicago Fed Survey of Economic Conditions, and providing briefings to the Chicago Fed president on Seventh District economic conditions. Additionally, he is a contributing author to the Bank's Midwest Economy blog.

This event offers a unique opportunity to stay informed, prepare for the upcoming year, and indulge in beverages, appetizers, and a round of mini golf at the tech-infused indoor mini golf haven, Puttshack.

Say goodbye to winter blahs as you network in this enjoyable atmosphere. We're delighted to announce that our friends from the Chicago Midwest Chapter of the National Association of Surface Finishers will also be joining us. Come out to relish networking, gain valuable insights, and socialize. Consider becoming a sponsor for this delightful event!
